

The new oil burning super-dreadnought U. S. S. Maryland, photographed on her trial trip off Rockland, Me. She is electrically driven. International.

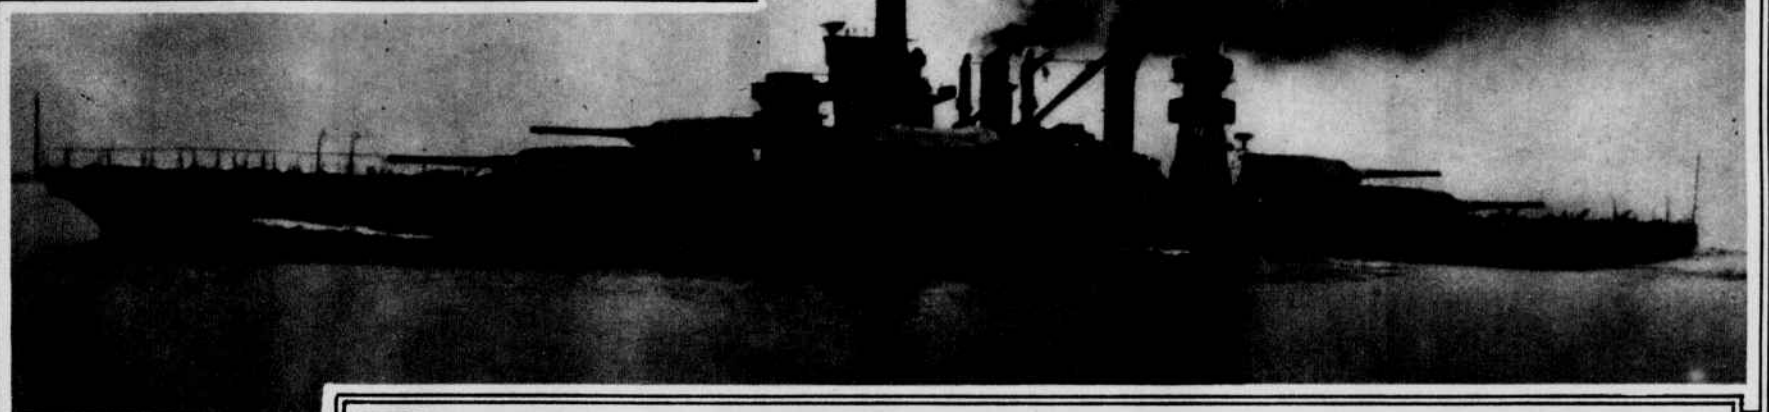

Chief Justice Taft buys Christmas seals to aid the national drive for the prevention of tuberculosis. International.

Sixteen-year-old Willetta Huggins of Janesville, Wis., is totally blind and deaf. Some remarkable power enables her to distinguish friends from strangers and her sense of touch is so acute that she can receive telephone messages through her finger tip, as the picture shows.

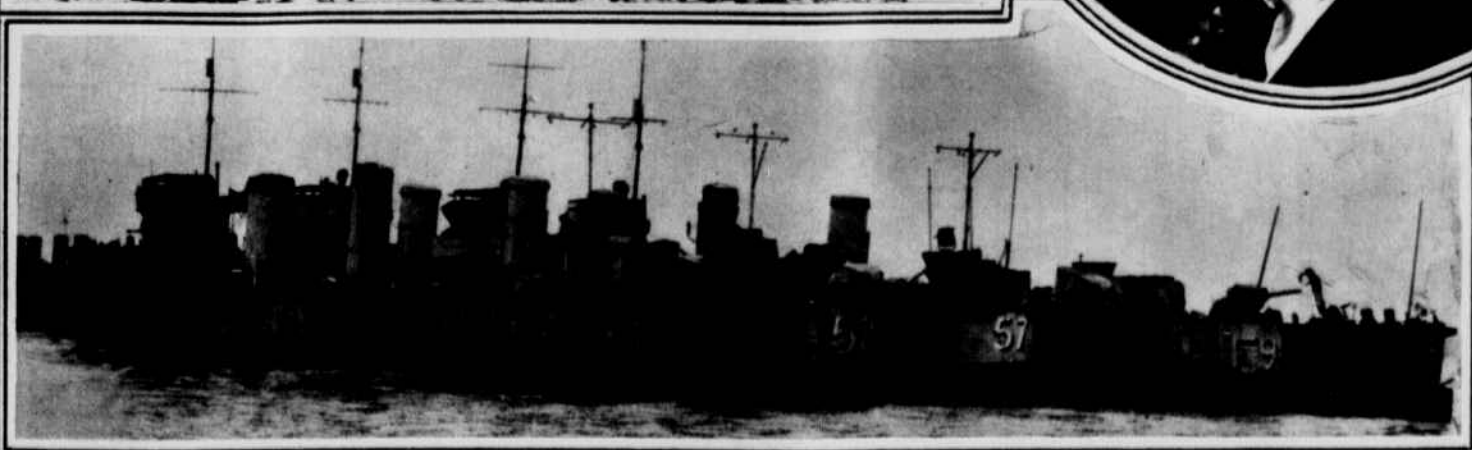

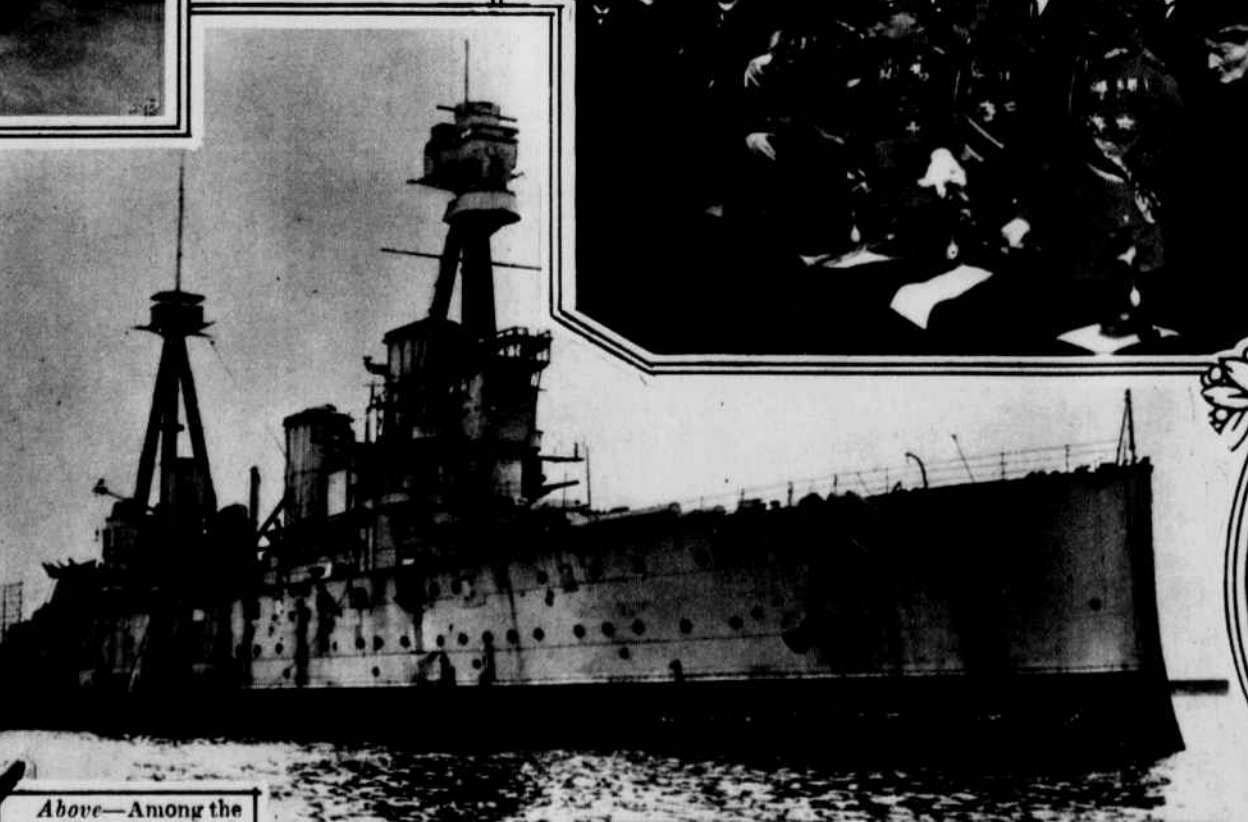

Above—Among the warships already offered for demolition by the British Admiralty is the Indomitable, shown in the photograph. She was in the battles of Heligoland, Dogger Bank, Dardanelles and Jutland.

At right—At the Chatham dockyard, England, are 140 war vessels for sale for old iron. Here is a group of destroyers, many of which have war records. Topical Press.

Above—Broadside view of the U. S. S. Maryland on her trial trip, on which she made 21.76 knots. She carries eight sixteen inch guns. International.

At right—This gathering of notables in Munich was in honor of the German war dead. In the front row are Princess Arnulf of Bavaria, Crown Prince Rupprecht, Prince Leopold, Prince Conrad and Prince Alfonso. Keystone View Co.

Gen. Leonard Wood taking the oath as Governor-General of the Philippines. Facing him is acting Chief Justice Johnson; Gen. Treat stands behind the Justice; Retiring Governor Leader and Rafael Palma are at the right. Wide World.

Above—Prof. G. H. Camerlynck, official interpreter attached to the French armament delegation, translates addresses into either French or English with remarkable speed and accuracy. (c) Harris & Ewing.